Gratz, Auguſt 7, N. S.

THEIR Imperial Majeſties, who went on the 3d Inſtant to Loiben, a Place about nine German Miles off, to hunt the Roe-buck, returned hither on the 5th. M. Bragadini, the Venetian Ambaſſadour, has had Orders to complain of ſome Violences which have been committed by a Detachment of the Empeour's Troops in the Territories of the Republick confining on Mantua, by turning the Courſe of Water, deſtroying the Dykes, and plundering ſeveral Houſes. The Imperial Court have thought fit to diſavow what has been done, and have writ to the Prince of Darmſtadt the Governour of Mantua, to cauſe all Damages to be repaired out of Hand. The Expreſs who brought the News of Baron Penterriedter's Death, ſet out laſt Night with full Powers for Baron Fonſeca to ſucceed him as third Plenipotentiary. Count Windiſgratz is preparing every Thing for his Journey to Soiſſons, and intends to ſet out much about the Time the Emperour goes for Trieſte, which remains fixed to the 16th of this Month.

Vienna, Aug. 14, N. S. Letters from Conſtantinople of the 4th of laſt Month give an Account, that two Articles of the Peace between the Port and Eſreff which had been delayed to be performed, had been lately put in Execution, viz. by the Reſtitution of all the Artillery taken by the latter from the former in a Victory he obtained over them, and by the Ceſſion of the Province of Huveiſe (anciently Suza) to the Turks. That indeed the Baſha of Bagdat was obliged to march an Army to take Poſſeſſion of Huveiſe by Force, but as the Oppoſition he met with proceeded from the Han or Governour of the Province, who would not give it up, and not from Eſreff, who performed his Part by ſending the proper Orders, this Incident had made no Flaw in the Peace. Thus Eſreff had ſecured himſelf againſt any further Diſturbance from the Turks, but yet was ſaid to be in a very uncertain State, being hated by the Perſians, and having loſt his chief Support, which is his own Country of Candahar; a Brother of the late Mirveiz having made himſelf Maſter of that Province, by which Means all Succour and Recruits from thence for Eſreff's Army were cut off. Beſides that Diſappointment, Schach Tochmas, a Son of the late King of Perſia, who had long led a debauched indolent Life, began to beſtir himſelf, and was become a dangerous Antagoniſt, having got together a conſiderable Body of Troops, with which he was to march againſt Eſreff, and not without Appearance of Succeſs. At the ſame Time Tochmas had diſpatched two Ambaſſadours, one to the Porte, and the other to the Czar, to engage thoſe two Powers in his Intereſt. So that the Wars in Perſia were yet far from being at an End. There had been for ſome Time a Rebellion among the Crim Tartars, headed by a Prince of their Royal Family called Dely Sultan, who had drawn together ſo large a Body of Men, that the Tartar Han was not ſtrong enough to give him Battle: But as the Porte was ſending Troops to ſupport him, it was thought Dely Sultan muſt in a little Time be ſuppreſſed.

Fontainebleau, Aug. 23, N. S. On the 14th Inſtant the young Dutcheſs of Bourbon was preſented to the King at Verſailles by her Mother in Law, being accompanied by all the Princeſſes of the Family of Conde; the King ſaluted her Highneſs, and received her and her Brother Prince Alexander in the moſt gracious Manner. After which ſhe was conducted to the Queen's Apartment, attended by the ſame Princeſſes and the principal Perſons of the Court, and after having had the like gracious Reception of her Majeſty, ſhe went to ſee the young Princeſſes their Majeſties Children; ſhe then returned to her Mother in Law's Apartment, and after taking ſome Refreſhments, ſhe went back to Paris. The King, who left Verſailles on the 18th Inſtant, ſupped at Petitbourg, and arrived early the next Morning at Fontainebleau. The Queen will go to Paris about the 13th of next Month, to perform her Devotions at Notre Dame and St. Genevieve, and about the 16th her Majeſty will come to Fontainebleau.

Hampton-Court, Aug. 2. 1728.

His Majeſty being informed that Nathaniel Boſtock, Exchange Broker, having on Friday the 19th of July laſt tranſacted Buſineſs for conſiderable Sums of Money, and paid Six Thouſand Pounds, beſides between Three and Four Hundred Pounds depoſited the ſame Day in the Hands of Mr. Pepys, Banker, in Lombard-ſtreet, was ſeen that Evening at Lambeth, between Seven and Eight a Clock, by ſeveral Perſons, and has ever ſince been miſſing and not yet heard of; and that Part of his Cloaths having been found at Lambeth next Morning much torn and bloody, it is violently preſumed from that and other Circumſtances that he was murdered: His Majeſty, for the Diſcovery of ſo heinous a Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Accomplices therein (except the Perſon by whoſe Hand the Murder was committed) who ſhall diſcover the reſt of thoſe Criminals, ſo as they be apprehended and convicted.

TOWNSHEND.
